BOUGHT HER
NO CLOTHING

Katie Spencer yesterday filed suit for divorce against Charles Grant Spencer on the ground of non-support. They were married on October 18, 1902. The libellant says that Grant is a "person of indolent and shiftless habits, utterly averse to do anything." She claims he has not purchased her any clothing since they were married, and has never contributed anything toward her support. He has frequently left her and been absent for several weeks and is wholly indifferent to her happiness, so she alleges.

PENIEL MISSION
ANNIVERSARY

Today being the seventeenth anniversary of Peniel Mission work the services tonight will be especially of a Thanksgiving nature. The record of this mission all the world over shows a solid grasp of Christian principle as a basis, and deep sincerity combined with self-sacrificing enthusiasm in its application. A cordial welcome is extended to all Christians attending prayer meetings tonight to drop in for a few minutes at the close of their own service.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Magazines at publishers' prices, at Lyon's.

We get the late books before the other dealers. You can rely on Lyon's book store.

Try Pacheco's dandruff killer for falling hair. At your druggist's and Union barber shop.

A quiet, middle aged man desires a room in private family. See our Classified ads.

An experienced bookkeeper advertises for situation in city or on plantation. See our Classified ads.

A music roll was lost somewhere between Makiki and town. Finder will be rewarded if same is returned to this office.

Dr. M. E. Grossman the dentist will leave for a short visit to California. His office will be closed from Nov. 18th to December 18.

The I. I. S. S. Mauna Loa will take excursion parties of six or more to the volcano; everything necessary will be provided. Tickets will be sold for $50 for the round trip.

Tenders will be received by the Superintendent of Public Works until 12 m. on Saturday, December 19th for constructing the Royal school. Plans and specifications now on file at the office of the engineer, Dept. of Public Works.

The home is happiest if it is your own. Property right elevates the ideas and blesses the family circle. It is easy enough to own your home if you proceed properly. W. M. Minton has some choice lots to offer in Kaimuki on easy terms. Office in Judd building.

Change of Management.

Mr. Charles Hummel, formerly of the Waverly shaving parlors, has taken charge of the Hawaiian Hotel barber shop, where he will be pleased to see his friends.

Tourist Talk.

Mr. E. M. Boyd of the Promotion Committee has consented to enlighten the Problem Club tomorrow on The value of Individual Effort in the Promotion of Tourist Travel. This subject should draw out discussion from merchants as well as young men. Supper at 6, discussion opened at 6:40 and closed at 7:30.

"Just It."

Old fashioned buttermilk for "Hot Cakes" and pineapple syrup to go with it at Clark Farm Co.'s depot, 1139 Fort street.

A Home Rule jubilation over election triumphs at Hokena, Hawaii, evolved a free fight in which the holokole sex was mixed up. Some more gin made the function resume its initial elements of bliss, the repairing of noses and drapery being deferred till the morning.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The polo game at Moanalua today will start at 3 p. m. sharp.

Five priests arrived in the Mauna Loa to attend the Catholic retreat.

Dr. M. E. Grossman is about to take a month's vacation on the mainland.

The Pacific Social Club will dance in San Antonio hall on Saturday evening.

Oriental hackmen complain of having been cheated out of fares by soldiers over visiting transports.

Returns of election expenses by county candidates are slowly dribbling into Registrar Buckland's office.

Hawaiian Lodge No. 21 will hold a special meeting for work in the first degree tonight in Masonic hall.

Honolulu is honored with an incursion of elected county candidates from the other islands looking up bonds.

During the week of prayer for young men the Y. M. C. A. is holding meetings at 7:30 every evening save Wednesday.

The new Oceanic wharf sheds will probably be ready for occupancy about the time of the arrival of the Alameda on her next trip.

This is the third anniversary of the Pacific Heights electric railway opening, which marked the advent of electric cars to Honolulu.

The soda water stand at the Liliha street electric railway terminus was robbed of sundry articles and a little cash on Monday night.

The formal opening of the Chinese hospital will take place on Thursday, Nov. 12th, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Visitors are cordially invited.

Yoni Nakamoto filed suit for divorce yesterday against Shiohei Nakamoto, on the ground of non-support. She asks for $25 per month alimony.

Purser Burningham of Wilder's fleet has, for a second time within a solstice, been made the victim of a sneak thief, who depleted his wardrobe on both occasions.

John T. Scott suffered another stroke of paralysis yesterday at his home on Prospect street, and has been unconscious since. Little hope for his recovery is expressed.

James Paikal, who was arrested for striking Officer McDuffie on election day, appeared in the police court yesterday for trial. The case was continued until Thursday.

Secretary Carter and Commissioner Boyd yesterday began their work as a committee of the executive council to investigate the land transactions submitted by Superintendent Cooper.

A Chinese store in a rice patch near Camp McKinley was burned last night. There was a still alarm sent to Makiki station, whose firemen went to the place but the fabric was past saving when they arrived.

Inspector Bechtel has gone to Kauai in quest of recent immigrants who may have become public charges, in jails or hospitals, the stay of whom in the country is prohibited by the immigration laws. Oahu has been scouted for the same purpose.

Secretary Carter yesterday divulged an intention to make some change, when he became Governor, in the system of holding regular consultations with heads of departments, or meetings of the so-called executive council. His desire is to reduce the tax on the time of all concerned.

Enoch Johnson yesterday filed suit against W. C. Achi to recover damages in the sum of $2589.50, together with interest from December 26, 1900. The suit grows out of a land transaction over property in Kewalo, which the plaintiff purchased, it being understood that it was unincumbered. Later he discovered that C. M. Cooke had a mortgage.
